A Friend in Need

I wanted to share with you a true story about one of your members. Recently, we were traveling to Michigan delivering a 2 year old filly. We began our travels at 7pm and our fuel pump went out at midnight right outside of Somerset, Pa. On the Pa turnpike. We finally got towed, after bribing the tow truck driver to tow both the truck and the trailer with the filly inside. The Pa TP authority, actually wanted us to unload the filly on the highway and have someone come to get her, at 2 am.

I don't think so! We discovered we could not get the truck fixed for several days and would have to go get another vehicle back in VA to come get the filly to finish our trip. We then remembered

R & S Paso Finos and Rick Shaffer. We called him to tell him of our dilemma and within the hour he came to the hotel where our horse trailer was parked and rescued our filly. He took her to his farm, delaying his commitment to attend his son's soccer game, and bedded her down after her 24 hour ordeal in the trailer. We were able to come and get her the next morning and she was rested and happy, Rick even offered us more hay for the trip, and thankfully he made the game. The rest of the trip was uneventful. Rick did not want anything for his kindness and acted as if this was just a normal thing for anyone to do. We can't thank him enough, because we know it is NOT the norm, maybe it just is for him. But then again maybe he knew if his Dad found out he didn't help he would have to answer to him!!! Seriously, we just thought you should know what kind people you have in your association.

God Bless the Shaffers!

Cloud Nine Cometa: a PFHA 2010 Top 10 Gelding

Prometido de Selecta X CoCo del Azur; Points: 443

My thanks go to the PFHA for recognizing Cloud Nine Cometa as a Top Ten Gelding for 2010. I have enjoyed competing with Cometa over the past six years in Regional and occasional National shows. Training imparted by Rick Shaffer, James Laird and Mary Rizo-Patron has served to enhance his natural talent. During the 2010 National Show, Cometa received honorable mention in A/O Performance Geldings, 4th Grand National Champion A/O Performance Geldings and 4th National Champion A/O Performance Geldings for Gold.

I would like to acknowledge the help and support of the MD Amateur Owner community. I became aware of the Paso Fino breed only a few years ago, taking lessons with Petra Azar and Liz Avery. Petra and BJ Schuler helped me to find Cometa and BJ provided a fabulous facility where Cometa lived and I trained. BJ, Maryan Schlesman, and other Paso owners in Eastern PA helped Cometa and I to learn to work together.

Cometa is a very kind, gentle and trusting gelding with abundant brio, a strong work ethic and brilliant movement. I could not ask for a better equine partner. During our time together, Cometa and I have enjoyed numerous activities outside of the show ring, to include participating in parades and demonstrations, trail riding and playing horse soccer.
